To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure of working with Wes Jackson over the past three summers. Wes Jackson is an exemplary team member which is shown through his dedication and commitment. He has held many positions such as, Front gate ambassador, Marketing coordinator, and Information Technology administrative support. To be an effective in all positions one has to exude professionalism, diligence, and strong communication skills all of which Wes Jackson exhibits on a daily basis. Routinely Wes Jackson handles tough and uncomfortable situations that are resolved because of his effective leadership skills. It has been a pleasure to see his leadership skills grow as Wes Jackson has shown the ability to be a leader in our company. I recommend Wes Jackson for your institution as he has proven to be a servant leader. He represents high standards and assurance, all while keeping the goal in perspective.
